EDUCATING INDIAN CHILDREN.

An Order Issued by the Government Authorities Compelling Indian Children to Attend School—Report on the Subsistence of the Army—Construction on the Alien Labor Law in Connection with the World's Fair Employes—Other National News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The commissioner of Indian affairs, with the approval of the secretary of the interior, yesterday issued rules and regulations to enforce the attendance of Indian children of suitable age and health at schools established and maintained for their benefit. The rule prescribed, provides that every Indian youth shall attend some school, but so far as practicable the preference of Indian parents or guardians, or of Indian youths of sufficient maturity and judgment, will be regarded as to whether the attendance shall be at government, public or private schools.

Children of a suitable age is defined to include all those more than five and under eighteen years of age. The suitable health of a child is to be determined by a medical examination. In case there is no boarding school on the reservation, the rules require that the children be placed in non-reservation schools. Where children are not allowed by their parents to attend school, they will be reported to the Indian office for whatever punishment the circumstances warrant. The rules make it the duty of agents, special agents and supervisors of education to use their authority whenever necessary to secure the attendance of Indian children at school, and whenever necessary Indian police will be called upon to enforce attendance.

SUBSISTENCE OF THE ARMY.

The Commissary General Submits His Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—General Dubarry, commissary general of the subsistence of the army, has submitted his annual report to the secretary of war. The report states that the resources of the department for the year were $8,585,987, and the expenditures were $2,887,586, leaving a balance of $648,401. The subsistence supplies issued to Indians and transferred to the Indian department during the past year aggregated $40,805.

There were issued to destitute citizens at various posts, upon order of commanding officers, 4,735 rations, most of which were issued during the Sioux campaign.

For liquid coffee $33,700 was expended, an increase of $1,293, largely due to the movement of troops made necessary on account of the campaign with the Sioux.

The value of stores and property reported lost by accident and wastage in transportation was $9,207, loss on sales of condemned supplies $17,277.

ALIEN LABOR LAW.

How It Effects Workmen at the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Acting Secretary Spaulding has written a letter to the secretary of state in regard to the construction of the alien contract labor law by the attorney general, who holds that skilled experts who may come from foreign countries to aid foreign exhibitors in setting up and operating machinery to be brought to the United States and exhibited at the world's fair, as well as clerks, stall keepers and other persons whose services may be required by foreign exhibitors, are outside of and not subject to the contract labor law.

Mr. Spaulding expresses the belief that this opinion of the attorney general does not permit the admission of Chinese laborers to assist Chinese exhibitors and that they can only be admitted by an act of congress removing the prohibition that operates against them.

Agreement with the Indians.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Secretary Noble yesterday received a dispatch from David H. Jerome, chairman of the Cherokee Indian commission now at Ponca, Indian Territory, stating that an agreement has been signed with the Tonawae Indians, ceding 80,000 acres to the United States, the money consideration being $30,000. The negotiations with the Ponca Indians will be resumed tomorrow.

Aliens Returned to Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Immigrant Inspector A. G. Malloy, of El Paso, Tex., telegraphed Immigrant Commissioner Owen today that yesterday he returned nineteen alien contract laborers to Mexico, whence they had come to El Paso to work on a railroad.

Aliens Burned.

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 23.—Forest Inn, the principal hotel at the famous natural bridge, of Virginia, was destroyed by fire Wednesday evening. The loss on the hotel and furniture is $65,000, on which there is a small insurance. Appledoe Inn and Pavilion Inn, the two other hotels, were saved.

United States Consul Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 23.—Gilderoy Wells Griffin, United States consul to Sydney, N. S. W., died here last night of Bright's disease. He had been sick about three weeks. He was born in Louisville in 1841.

FAMINE IN MEXICO.

Failure of the Corn Crop Causes Great Distitution to Exist.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 23.—W. T. Robertson, the contractor for the construction of the Durango extension of the Mexican International road, arrived here yesterday. The destitution among the people of that section of Mexico, he says, is even worse than reported, the drought not having yet been broken. The government has removed temporarily the duty on corn on account of the famine, and large quantities are being shipped from the United States.

The famished people, however, receive little benefit, as the corn fall into the hands of speculators, who put the price up. A few days ago a wealthy landowner living near Torreon, Coahuila, received a big consignment of corn, the price of which he placed at $1 per bushel. When the poor, starving cattle-herders in the vicinity learned of his action, a mob of them got together, and proceeding to Coahuila, home, took him out and shot him dead.

TOOK IT FOR A SQUIRREL.

Boys Heaten for Firing at Farmer Cagmas' Cap.

HOLLIS, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Samuel Cadmus, residing near here, wears a squirrel skin cap. Yesterday morning he started out to gather chestnuts, Charles Kinkel and Harry Austin, two Long Island City youths, were ranging the woods near here in search of squirrels.

Cadmus had climbed a tree to reach the nuts. The boys saw the tip of the farmer's fur cap among the leaves. They believed it to be a squirrel and blazed away at the target. The hat came down and so did Cadmus. Several shots had grazed the man's head. He refused to accept the apologies of the frightened boys, and seizing a stick proceeded to beat them. The farmer's head was dressed at a druggist in Jamaica.

Contradictory Testimony.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—In the Byram-Sullivan suit against the insurance company yesterday, Marshall Pugh, the owner of a large stock farm, testified that Sullivan was at his farm from 3 o'clock until late in the evening of the day of the fire. The witness gave an account of the visit, and showed by his books that Sullivan's horse was left at his farm that day. John Lehman, Sullivan's driver, testified to going with Sullivan to the farm, and swore that they did not return until about 8 o'clock that evening, an hour after the fire originated. All the testimony yesterday was directly opposite that given the previous day.

Rich Farmer Goes to Prison.

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 23.—After being out twenty-four hours the jury brought in a verdict finding Joseph Pugsley guilty of larceny, and sentenced him to the state prison for one year and a fine of $1.

Pugsley is a wealthy farmer residing near Dalesville, ten miles west of Muncie. A few months ago Thomas Conley, a neighbor, missed a new plow from his field, where it had been left the night before. A few days later Conley discovered Pugsley using it. Conley, greatly surprised, offered to take the plow home and say nothing. Pugsley's refusal of the offer resulted in the sensational arrest and conviction.

LANCASTER, Ky., Oct. 23.—A fire which originated in the meat packing establishment of T. S. Elkins & Company, yesterday, destroyed most of the business part of the town. Lillard & Company, druggists, loss $7,000, insurance $4,000; The opera house, loss $4,000, no insurance; J. M. Phillips, to store rooms, loss $6,500, no insurance; R. E. McRoberts, druggist, loss $1,000, fully insured. The total loss will aggregate $40,000, total insurance about $25,000.

A Novel Project.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 23.—Prominent business men of this city, Augusta, Bangor and Lewiston, have organized a corporation known as the New England Transportation company, the object of which is to provide transportation to Chicago during the fair, which shall include sleeping car service, board in Chicago and accident insurance. The plan is a very novel one and consists in the issue of certificates payable in installments, which, when fully paid, are to be exchanged for tickets to Chicago.

Back to the Old Fuel.

LIMA, O., Oct. 23.—The Lima Natural Gas company has notified all factories and shops supplied from its lines that after Nov. 1, natural gas would be furnished for domestic use only. S. A. Baxter, president of the company, says the step is rendered necessary by a decrease on pressure from 350 pounds to 125 pounds. Private consumers are also warned to prepare for emergencies and lay in a stock of coal or wood.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 23.—Early yesterday morning two mail pouches containing a number of registered packages and several hundred letters were stolen from a post office on the Little Rock and Memphis road. ## BASE BALL MEETING.

Association Representatives Meet in Chicago.

BUT LITTLE BUSINESS DONE

Chicago Admitted Which Means That the Columbus or Louisville Clubs Will Be Dropped from the Circuit of the American Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The men who make and unmake the affairs of the American Base Ball Association were slow in getting together at the Wellington hotel yesterday, many of them not getting in on the morning trains. As a result the meeting, which had been put off until 4 in the afternoon.

The executive committee of the Association went into session shortly before noon, for the purpose of discussing the business to be brought before the full meeting. Von Der Ahe, of St. Louis, was accepted as proxy for Hart, of Boston, who is unable to attend the meeting on account of illness. The new Chicago Association club was admitted to membership and the committee then proceeded to review the financial strength of the various clubs for the purpose of making up a report to be presented at the meeting in the afternoon.

Both Kansas City and Minneapolis have been specially invited to the meeting and have representatives here.

The directors found that the Association was in an excellent financial condition and that there was a considerable balance in the treasury.

The fine of $50 imposed upon Kerine, the umpire, for indecent language on the field at Washington on the occasion of the protested decision giving Washington a game from Baltimore by a score of 9 to 0, was sustained on appeal.

Umpire McLaughlin's decision, giving the Boston-St. Louis game of Sept. 12, to St. Louis, 9 to 0, was also sustained.

The annual report of President Phelps showed that St. Louis had been most prompt in paying their dues, but that Boston, St. Louis and Philadelphia had turned in the largest amounts. President Phelps spoke in harsh terms regarding the suspicion attending the League pennant contest finished this year and congratulated the Association that the hippodrome playing and throwing of games were unknown in its ranks. Clubs were urged to discharge discourteous and ungentlemanly players.

The report concluded by saying that the breach between the League and the Association had baffled all efforts to bridge it over and the opinion was expressed that the League would agree to no settlement unless assured of the best of it.

The bond of President Phelps to the sum of $20,000 was accepted, together with his report.

The regular meeting was called to order by President Phelps at 4 o'clock, with the following delegates present:

Baltimore—H. R. Van der Horst, J. W. Waltz.

Boston—Julian B. Hart, represented by C. Von der Ahe.

Columbus—Conrad Born, R. Lazarus, G. Schmelz, E. Tompkins.

Louisville—G. Ruckstuhl, T. J. Bateman, F. J. Drexler, Jr., John C. Chapman.

Milwaukee—H. E. Gillette, Charles H. Cushman.

Philadelphia—J. E. Wagner, George Wagner, William Barnie.

St. Louis—C. Von Der Ahe, George Munson, E. Von Der Ahe.

Washington—M. B. Scanlan, E. Suth-

The secretary read and the meeting adopted President Phelps' annual report. Chris Von Der Ahe, of St. Louis

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1891.

The following paragraph was taken from the Mayville BULLETIN:

There is no let up in the religious discussion in the Dover News between the Christians and Baptists of that place. Mr. James N. Boyd throws out the following "def" in last week's issue: "We have a challenge in writing from the Baptist Church signed by the committee, in which we find this proposition: 'That the church or kingdom of Christ, which is now called Mis-sions, has been in the days of the apostles down to the present.'

"We demand its discussion. Let us see who backs down at home and not at Fairview. Don't say we have not time, for we have all winter. Let us come to business and not slang Goliath to death. These matters are too important to be passed without careful consideration."

The Baptists of Dover replied to this "def" through the columns of the Dover News, publishing the correspondence that passed between the two churches. They showed that the proposition contained in the aforesaid "def" was included in the challenge which they sent to the Reformers. In the reply which the Reformers made they utterly ignored this and other propositions which the Baptists presented. We have looked in the BULLETIN for some sort of statement of the Baptist side of this matter, but we have looked in vain. Now, it occurs to us that secular papers ought to ignore religious discussions altogether, except as news items, or they ought to be fair to both sides. The BULLETIN does neither, but is one-sided in such matters. The report of the debate at Fairview between Moody and Sweeney was written by a Reformer for the BULLETIN and was a one-sided affair. The position of the BULLETIN, however, may be accounted for by the fact that its editor is identified with that denomination.—Bracken Baptist.

The BULLETIN is under many obligations to the Bracken Baptist for its advice as to how "secular newspapers" ought to be run, but we haven't been in the business these many years for nothing. We are not entirely ignorant on that subject. If the paragraph copied by the Bracken Baptist from the BULLETIN isn't a "news item" will the editor of that paper please tell us what it is? One might infer from the way he talks that he really doesn't know what an editorial is when he sees it. He certainly didn't find the paragraph in the editorial columns of this paper. It was given as a news item, and we were so little interested in the discussion at Dover that we didn't pay much attention to the reply published the following week. We don't remember now whether we even read it or not. One thing we do know, though, and that is we didn't read all the wordy articles that were rehashed week after week in the Dover News until its kind-hearted and indulgent editor had to mention "chestnuts" to the parties engaged in the discussion.

Again, the BULLETIN is not in the habit of inquiring into the denominational preferences of its correspondents. The report of the Fairview debate was written by Colonel John B. Herndon, our Desha Valley representative, and we never knew he was a "Reformer" until we read the Bracken Baptist's statement to that effect. In writing up the Fairview debate the Colonel, as he always does, followed his own inclinations. He had no instructions whatever from this office. The statement by the Bracken Baptist that the Colonel's report of the debate was "one-sided" is the first we have heard or seen to that effect.

The editor of the Bracken Baptist mis-judges us, and we make this reply to his article simply in order to set ourselves right before our Baptist readers.

"The new Constitution lops off four members from each of the 119 grand juries, just as the fall grand jury season begins," remarks the Louisville Times. And the result of that lopping off is a big saving to the State annually. The new Constitution is all right.

A DESCRIPTION of the Hauss system of electric railways which does away with overhead wires was published a few days ago. It has since been learned that Mr. William H. Cox, of this city, was the first one to suggest to Mr. Hauss the plan of placing the wire under the rails. Mr. Hauss knows a good thing when he sees it and was not slow in making a practical application of the suggestion. Mr. Cox is entitled to credit for the invention.

The Play To-night.

Says an exchange: "Mr. Kelly and his present company have been identified with the sensational melodrama, 'The Shadow Detective,' for years. It has been highly successful. The drama is particularly strong in sensational scenes and elements which appeal to the better nature of an audience. Its plot is interesting, and introduces the star in four characters—'Geo. Thornton,' the shadow detective; 'Munty O'Brien,' an Irish policeman; 'Giovani,' an Italian, and 'Zack Beantosser,' a Yankee. His supporting company includes John J. Collins, Harry Albaugh, Rich Anderson, Miss Joan Cravey, May Buckingham, Annie Nagles and other dramatic artists, besides some clever specialty artists."

At the opera house to-night.

DISTILLERY STATISTICS.

The Number in the Seventh District of Kentucky and Their Output.

Mr. T. C. McDowell, Collector of Internal Revenue for this the Seventh district of Kentucky, has furnished Colonel C. Y. Wilson, State Commissioner of Agriculture, the following statistics relative to the number of distilleries and the production of spirits in the district, says the Frankfort Capital. Here are the figures:
Total number of distilleries.....102
Grain distilleries.....57
Fruit distilleries.....50

These are located in the following counties: Bath, Bourbon, Boyd, Carter, Clark, Elliott, Fayette, Fleming, Franklin, Greenup, Johnson, Lawrence, Lewis, Martin, Mason, Menifee, Montgomery, Morgan, Nicholas, Powell, Rowan, Scott and Woodford.

The total product of these distilleries during the past five years was 17,289,330 gallons. The total valuation of these spirits at 35 cents per gallon, without the tax, is $6,051,285.50; with the tax of $1.25 per gallon, it is $21,611,662.50.

These figures were made July 18, 1891, after the distilleries had closed their seasons, and will not represent the production between the re-opening of the season and the close of the current year.

THE MARKETS.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Wednesday.)

The offerings were large. There was no special demand shown for any grades, and there was a generally easy, irregular market.

The number of hogheads of good to fine leaf and colory grades was proportionately very small, but they held steady at former prices. Common and medium leaf and red were very dull, buyers not giving these grades much attention. Common tobacco and unselected showed a fair demand, and prices were in the main unchanged.

FLOODS IN EUROPE.

No Relief for the Storm-Beaten Island.

THE HURRICANE CONTINUES.

Vessels Wrecked in the English Channel and Fears for the Lives of the Sailors. The River Thames Overflowed for Over Thirty Miles—Other Events Happening Across the Ocean.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—There was a renewal of fierce gales over England last evening, and at the moment of writing there seems to be no relief in view for the storm-beaten island. At Sandgate, Kent, an unknown bark is ashore. Notwithstanding the fact that a fearful sea is rushing and roaring through the English channel, the crew of the local life boat have braved the storm and put out to the relief of the endangered sailors.

Dispatches from every part of Great Britain are arriving here, all telling of the vastly increasing floods. It is feared that the damage consequent upon the submerging of property will aggregate an enormous sum. For a distance of thirty miles the Thames has overflowed its banks. At Windsor the Thames rose four inches higher, flooding the meadows, a portion of the race course, and the play-fields of Eton college. Miles of Home park and Egham meads were also submerged.

Change in Army Equipment.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—The kaiser has given his sanction to the changes proposed by the war office in the appearance and equipment of the German army. The chief object sought to be achieved is the exchange of bright colors that attracted the aim of an enemy for ones that will make the soldier a less conspicuous target. White leather accoutrements are abolished, and the heavy spiked helmet is discarded for lighter head gear. The changes when effected will almost entirely transform the appearance of the German troops.

Revolutions Are Fashionable.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A Buenos Ayres dispatch reports an abortive attempt at revolution in Paraguay. The government acted promptly and the rebels were suppressed with little difficulty. Being sharply followed up by the government troops, the revolutionists fled across the frontier of the Argentine Republic, and there they were at once interned.

Bridges Swept Away.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—A fierce storm is raging in the valley of the Rhone. The bridge at Ollières has been swept away; the railway between Nîmes and Uzes is demolished and the plain around Besseges is submerged. Great damage is reported. The Rhone is still rising, and has caused immense damage in the departments of Ardèche and Gard.

All Quiet in China.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 28.—All is quiet, so reports from the interior state up to the 10th. The foreign consuls have ordered the missionaries of their respective nationalities not to return into the interior. A French squadron is approaching Shanghai. The distribution among the Chinese of pamphlets violently attacking foreigners continues.

Pleasure Before Duty.

VIENNA, Oct. 28.—Polish newspapers state that after celebrating his silver wedding the czar will make a tour through the famine-stricken districts of Russia, principally in order to defeat the designs of the nihilists.

Hopeful Peasants.

ODESSA, Oct. 28.—Plentiful rains in southern Russia, except Bessarabia and Kherson, have revived the prospects for good crops, and plowing and sowing is going vigorously forward, while the peasants are hopeful.

Influenza in France.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Influenza is raging in Angouleme and other places, in the department of Charente, southern France. Sixty pupils and the master of Richemont seminary are prostrated.

BOILER EXPLODES.

Four Men Killed and Four Others Seriously Injured.

MAYVILLE, N. D., Oct. 28.—A terrible accident occurred here yesterday on division No. 4 of the big Mayville farm, owned by the Grandin brothers. Four men were killed outright and four others seriously injured. The engineer of a steam thresher had allowed the water to run down too low, and the boiler exploded.

The killed are: M. N. Erstberger, engineer; Hans Baastad, fireman; A. L. Marsh, division foreman, and A. W. Blowers. William Clark, an unknown man, William Peabody and Larry May were seriously injured, but will recover.

Consul Sewell Home Again.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—United States Consul Sewell, of Samoa, arrived on Tuesday night on board steamship Oceanic, and left Wednesday night for the east. He reports no trouble at Samoa. The Oceanic brought 2,000 pounds of opium, the value of which is $40,000, and the import duty $34,000.

SWEETHEARTS' GIFTS.

A Kentucky Judge Decides That They Cannot Be Reclaimed.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 28.—Squire Herd yesterday decided a case that is of interest to susceptible lovers who make presents to the objects of their temporary affections and then desire to transform them with their fickle fancies.

Robert Austin, a trainman, some time ago gave a watch and chain valued at $14 to Maggie Klopf. He afterward took it from her and gave it to Birdie Chandler. A little later he took it from Miss Chandler and gave it to a young lady he married. Yesterday the first-named girl sued Austin and his wife for the watch, and a few minutes after the lady filed a cross petition and asked for the watch. The magistrate decided that it belonged to Miss Klopf, the one to whom it was first given.

BRIDGE GAVE WAY.

Three Workmen Precipitated Into the Potomac River.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Oct. 28.—A span of the bridge now in course of construction over the Potomac river, at Hancock, Md., gave way last evening and precipitated two representatives of the Gorton Bridge company, of Ohio, named Smith and Stone, and Mr. Blakeley, of this city, ninety feet into the river below.

The water in the river was comparatively shallow, and Mr. Stone, who came down head first, was instantly killed. Mr. Smith fell on his side and received probably fatal injuries. Mr. Blackley was lucky enough to strike the water feet first, and received only severe bruises about the legs.

ANOTHER INDIAN WAR.

The Yaquis Again Making It Lively for the Greasers.

NOGALES, A. T., Oct. 28.—The state of Sonora and, in fact, the entire republic of Mexico, is again in fever of excitement by reason of the Yaqui Indians along the Yaqui river having declared war and entered upon a campaign which promises to be a bloody and troublesome one. The Mexican government is concentrating troops as rapidly as possible and preparations are being made for a vigorous campaign. The importance of the situation leaked out through contracts being made in this city for a large supply of cartridge belts and canteens and the urgent request that orders be filled with all possible haste, regardless of expense.

Midnight Assault.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—W. P. Thatcher, street car driver on the Central avenue line, Wednesday night saw two men at the Tenth street turn-table, eyeing him suspiciously. He had passengers and the men withdrew into the darkness. This was next to the last trip. At midnight, on his last trip, as Thatcher was going into the stables the two men appeared suddenly before him. One hurled a stone that narrowly missed him and went through the car windows. Thatcher was anticipating an attack and opened fire upon the assailants. They fled behind a building and the pistol marks show that Thatcher's bullets went in the right direction. A grocery in the neighborhood had been robbed and all the car men were on their guard.

Flew to Pieces.

ENGLAND, Ind., Oct. 28.—A heading-jointer in Carr's stave factory flew to pieces, being driven too rapidly, and the flying fragments were hurled in every direction, the greater number tearing holes in the roof. Superintendent Carr was struck in the breast and seriously injured. Mrs. Carr, who had entered the factory through curiosity, received a slight scalp wound. Several workmen were imperilled. The machinery was badly wrecked, scarcely a respectable fragment of the jointer being left. A hole five feet square through the roof and another equally as large and three feet deep where the machine stood gives some idea of the force.

Suing Salvador.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A special to The Herald from San Salvador says Dr. Hermann Prowe, the well known and highly esteemed German physician, who was presented by the government with a gold medal for his distinguished services during the war, has put in a claim against Salvador for $60,000 pesos for indignities to which he was publicly subjected. He states that General Ruiz Pastor, a Spaniard in the Salvadorian service, slapped his face in a hotel while Pastor's three policemen held him so that he could not defend himself. He also demands that the general be dismissed from the army.

He walked with a firm step from the train to his carriage and seemed to be in as good health as an ordinary person.

An Embezzler Suicides.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—Joseph A. Filek, who, until Tuesday, was manager of J. S. McCauley's Slovenski bank here, embezzled Wednesday.
